Welcome and Announcements

Call to Worship

We gather this morning in the name of the Lord, who created time and space; in the name of Jesus Christ, born amidst humanity; and in the name of the Spirit, who fills our world with its presence. Creator God, as we worship in this time we call ‘now’ and in this space we call ‘here’, we ask you to make your presence felt among us.

Hymn of Gathering #298 Lord, You Give the Great Commission vs,1,3,5

Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, we are called into the world as disciples, sharing your love and teaching your ways. Yet we confess how often we hesitate. We want certainty before obedience, comfort before commitment, and assurance before action. We can be fearful of following where Christ leads, slow to embody love, and reluctant to extend grace. Forgive us, O God. Strengthen us by your Spirit. Remind us you are always with us. Give us courage to trust and faith to follow. Send us into the world with humility and joy.

Silent prayer

In the name of Christ, we pray. Amen.
