22nd Sunday after Pentecost

Psalm 90:1: Lord, you have been our dwelling place in all generations.

Welcome and Announcements

Call to Worship

We are called to bring a new understanding of The Divine: that God so loves the world.
We are called continually to an ever-present hope: that God gives us new life.
We are called to follow the commandments and the law.
May we try to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world.
May we be reminded to love one another with the love of God.
Let us join together in love for God and following Jesus by worshipping together.

Hymn of Gathering #729 Lord, I Want to Be a Christian

Prayer of Confession

God of grace and mercy, we confess that we have separated ourselves from you against you with our thoughts, words, and actions. We have done things we should not and left other things undone we should have attended to. We have not loved you with our whole heart and mind and strength. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. In your love forgive what we have been, help us work on what we are, and guide what we might become. May we delight in your will and walk in your ways.

Silent prayer

In the name of Christ, we pray. Amen.

Doxology – Hymn #606 Praise God, from Whom All Blessings Flow

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host;
praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.
